In uncertain terms the eloquent Nebraskaan defined his position and left not the slightest vestige of doubt that he stands for a united Democracy and a fighting heart and soul in the interest of the party which twice honored

Republicans, who have sought the votes of Mr. Bryan's friends, against them and demonstrated to the most earnest of his personal followers that he would consider a defeat for the Democratic ticket an even greater public calamity than he did in 1896 and 1900.

Great Political Gathering.

Mr. Bryan was greeted by one of the greatest political gatherings that ever assembled in Louisville. Long before the hour set for his appearance in the vast hall at Phoenix Hill, said to hold 10,000 persons comfortably, was jammed until there was hardly breathing room in the open space outside were thousands unable to push their way in.

The Democratic clubs of the city enlivened the early part of the evening by their arrival, marching in bodies

Local Candidates Speak.

Mr. Bingham spoke first. He was followed by Judge O'Doherty, who in turn gave way to Mr. Sherley. The Louisville Congressman had just finished and

RESIGNS.

Horace Dunbar To Leave Police Board.

WILL LOCATE IN PITTSBURG.

JEFFERSONVILLE FRIENDS NOT APPRISED OF INTENTIONS.

DEMOCRATS HARD AT WORK.

Greatly to the surprise of his friends, the fact became public yesterday that Horace Dunbar, of Jeffersonville, had tendered his resignation to Gov. W. T. Durrant as a member of the Board of Metropolitan Police Commissioners, to take effect immediately after the November election. It is the intention of Mr. Dunbar to locate in Pittsburg, where he expects to take up newspaper work.

The resignation of Mr. Dunbar will probably cause the two Republican factions to clash over an appointment of a successor, and it was for the sake of party harmony that Mr. Dunbar intended keeping his resignation a secret until after the election. Mr. Dunbar forwarded his resignation last Monday, but less than half a dozen persons knew it until yesterday. When the fact became public there was a great deal of comment here. Mr. Dunbar has made several trips to Indianapolis recently, and it is rumored that he has been named for the position. Mr. Dunbar was named in April, 1903, to succeed Albert H. Chambers, who died while in office. Mr. Dunbar was named last January for a term of three years. The other members of the board are Charles A. Murphy, a Democrat, and John B. Murphy, a Democrat. The naming of members of the board has caused much bitter feeling ever since the system was changed, and it is thought the pay is not great and the responsibilities are numerous.

The Democrats of New Albany and Floyd county are becoming enthusiastic, and the indications are that campaign will be waged vigorously from now until the day of the election. It is to be held almost nightly throughout the county, and there will be no reason why all the voters should not become thoroughly posted on the issues of the campaign.

The Hon. W. W. Stevens, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, and the Hon. W. W. Stevens, Democratic nominee for Representative from Floyd, Clark and Washington counties, have been making an active canvass of the county. Mr. Stevens is now in New Albany, and Mr. Stevens is now in New Albany. The Hon. W. W. Pickpockets Follow Bryan.

For several days a gang of pickpockets has been following the crowd attending the Bryan meetings, and at Bedford Mr. Bryan called attention to the fact from the fact that the people to be on the lookout. Last evening George Snider, Thomas Adams, Charles Ray and Nellie Ray, who had come in on the Southern, were arrested by Sgt. Adams of the New Albany police force, at Bank and Elm streets, and taken to the jail. They made some small resistance to accompanying him to the police station, but were taken to the jail. Cross registration frauds on the part of Republicans were laid bare in the County Court yesterday by investigation of the cases of twenty-three negro repeaters on complaint of the Democrats. As name after name was called at defense, while the Democratic workers testified that they had not been able to locate the persons whose names were on the list, the repeaters were marked doubtful.

That's our information, said Joe Sellman, attorney for the Republicans, would remark. "We have no evidence to show that these names were not found in the list of repeaters.
